IMPORTANT FACTS FOR BUSINESS MEN:

WORTH CONSIDERING.

Have you ever stopped to calculate the damage which Rats and Mice can do your stock? In a large city like Hongkong the destruction done any mercantile stock by Rats and Mice in greater than the cost of insurance against fire and other losses.

A few boxes of NEWTON'S RAT CHEESE used about your premises will positively keep these pests away. NEWTON'S RAT CHEESE is prepared ready for use, and all that is necessary to do, is sprinkle about where the rats run and they find it all right. They don't die in the house, but seek the drains or vaults for water, after eating.

NEWTON'S RAT CHEESE IS GUARANTEED.

SURE DEATH TO COCKROACHES, WATER-BUGS, WHITE ANTS, &c.

NEWTON'S ROACH POWDER

Will rid a house of such in 48 hours. It never fails to give perfect satisfaction, and is absolutely harmless to human beings.

Every house-keeper should not fail to try this ROACH POWDER.

Remember it's 'NEWTON'S' and NEVER FAILS in its work.

first, but with the increased number of properties to draw rates from I am sure the expenditure could easily be balanced. To a visitor from any other part of the world, the Government of Hongkong must look like a baroque, as it obstructs in every way it can the natural spread of the population, and then institutes pains and penalties for overcrowding. If these simple things had been looked into years ago, we should have been in a better position to take advantage of the spur in trade which has been going on all over the world for the last three years. Instead of this, we have been quarantined off on account of plague for about half of each year. Take the cost of prosecuting for artificial crime (I mean for overcrowding due to high rent demanded), the cost of the Sanitary staff, and the loss of trade on account of plague, and you will find that the sum will more than pay for the reforms I am suggesting.—Yours,

O. M. A.

The following are the report of the directors submitted at the annual ordinary general meeting of shareholders, held at the Offices of the Company, 3, Billiter Avenue, London, on the 18th March, 1902.

The directors beg to submit the general balance sheet and profit and loss account for the year ending 31st December, 1901, duly audited.

The net profit after providing for the general expenses of the current year, directors' fees, income tax, interest, &c., amounts to £34,245 15 5. An interim dividend of 3 per cent. on the preference, ordinary and ordinary 'B' shares was paid on 1st October, 1901, amounting to £15,062 8 0.

Leaving a sum of £19,183 7 5 which is proposed to apply as follows:—

To the credit of purchase account of steamer £9,000 0 0
To the credit of equalisation of dividends account 20,000 0 0
To the payment of a further dividend of 3 per cent., making 6 per cent. for the year, on the preference shares 5,029 16 0
Do, 3 per cent. for the year, on the ordinary shares (£5 paid) 3,347 4 0
Do, 3 per cent. making 6 per cent. for the year, on the ordinary 'B' shares 7,531 4 0
Balance to be carried to new account 3,284 3 5 £19,183 7 5

The directors are pleased to be able to place before the shareholders the result of the working of the past year, which permits them to recommend, after providing for the six per cent. preference share dividends, a distribution of the profits to the ordinary shareholders of 7 per cent. and to the holders of the 'B' shares of 6 per cent. per annum, and to place the sum of £10,000 credit of purchase account of steamers, and the further sum of £20,000 to credit of equalisation of dividends account.

The steamers of the Company have been maintained in thoroughly efficient condition out of current revenue.

In view of the extension of the Company's operations, and to meet the universally expected increase of trade with the Far East, the board continued for the building of three large and powerful twin-screw steamers Peking, Orinda, and Ningpo, for delivery during the current year. It is confidently expected that these vessels will materially contribute to the profitable working of the Company.

The directors announce with regret the retirement of Mr David Reid, who was a director of the Company from its commencement, and was for many years chairman of the board. The directors invited Mr Geo. B. Dobson to join the board, and his election will need your confirmation.

The auditors, Messrs. John Baker and Sons and Mr Jameson Elles, offer their services for re-appointment.

It is proposed that dividends shall be paid, both in London and the East, on the 21st March, 1902. The transfer books will be closed from 5th to 21st March, inclusive.

Geo. B. Dobson,
Director.

London, 5th March, 1902.

Some people are weakly and emaciated, yet they are not, to say, sick. Their appetites are fair, they eat good, wholesome food, but they cannot gain flesh. The face is, their nutritive functions are deficient. The food may even be digested, but is not properly assimilated. With loss of, or lack of, sufficient flesh there is a corresponding decline of strength and vigour. Comeliness of form is dependent upon graceful curves, plumpness, rather than upon angles. Bony prominences, hollow cheeks and eyes, are not pleasing to the sight.

Stearns' Wine of Cod Liver Oil is an admirable flesh-builder. It will increase the weight of almost anyone. It improves the appetite, stimulates digestion, builds up nutrition. It presents cod liver oil so long lauded as a flesh producer, in a much improved and more active form. It contains no harmful nor obnoxious ingredients and always produces good results. A wonderful flesh-creator for those who 'cannot get fat.' Stearns' Wine produces appetite, flesh and strength. Wholesale from A. S. Watson & Co., Ltd., Hongkong.

Honouring Missionaries.

The Peking correspondent of the *N. C.
Daily News* wrote on the 27th ult:—The Memorial of Viceroy Yuan Shih-kai, recommending certain of the officials, the gentry, and missionaries for decoration, has received the Imperial Rescript. As I previously foretold, Bishop Favier, is promoted from 2nd to 1st button and rank.
Bishop Martin, who remains with his 2nd button, gets a peacock's feather. The Bishops at Chengting and Hsienhsien are also honoured. The only Protestant is the Rev. Frank L. Norris, of the Anglican Mission. Other Protestant missionaries should have been recognised, but several had forestalled such action by insisting that they wanted no buttons, feathers, or badges.

Germans at Football.

The other day, a football match (Association) was played at Chinkiang between teams representing the Imperial Maritime Customs and the German cruiser Scoutler.
The spin of the coin favoured the visitors, who kicked off and took the ball to the home quarters, where the rush was stopped by Murry. Even play was witnessed until five minutes from the interval, when the visiting forwards came away with a rush and scored amidst great excitement.
Splendid passing was witnessed by Campbell, Rollo and Ellis when the whistle blew for half-time. After the interval the home team had the best of the play, the naval goal being frequently in danger. From a splendid piece of passing on the part of Murry, Rollo, Campbell and Ellis, it ended
in the latter scoring an equalising goal amidst loud applause. Soon after the whistle blew for time, the game ending in a draw.

Honouring Missionaries.

The Peking correspondent of the *N. C.
Daily News* wrote on the 27th ult:—The Memorial of Viceroy Yuan Shih-kai, recommending certain of the officials, the
gentry, and missionaries for decoration,
has received the Imperial Rescript. As I previously foretold, Bishop Favier, is promoted from 2nd to 1st button and rank.
Bishop Martin, who remains with his 2nd button, gets a peacock's feather. The Bishops at Chengting and Hsienhsien are also honoured. The only Protestant is the
Rev. Frank L. Norris, of the Anglican
Mission. Other Protestant missionaries
should have been recognised, but several had forestalled such action by insisting that they wanted no buttons, feathers, or badges.

Germans at Football.

The other day, a football match (Association) was played at Chinkiang between
teams representing the Imperial Maritime
Customs and the German cruiser Scoutler.
The spin of the coin favoured the visitors,
who kicked off and took the ball to the
home quarters, where the rush was stopped
by Murry. Even play was witnessed until five minutes from the interval, when
the visiting forwards came away with a
rush and scored amidst great excitement.
Splendid passing was witnessed by Campbell, Rollo and Ellis when the whistle blew
for half-time. After the interval the home team had the best of the play, the naval goal being frequently in danger. From a splendid piece of passing on the part of Murry, Rollo, Campbell and Ellis, it ended
in the latter scoring an equalising goal
amidst loud applause. Soon after the whistle blew for time, the game ending in a draw.

LONDON LETTER.

(From Our Own Correspondent).

LONDON, March 14.

The Russian grip on Manchuria is visibly weakening. The death of their purchased ally, Li Hung-chang, and the announcement of our Japanese alliance have been followed by small diplomatic victories in Peking, trifling in themselves, but indicating plainly the view that official opinion in the Court is learning (under pressure) to take with reference to China's rights and responsibilities in Manchuria. A month before the treaty, I wrote in these columns, concerning its visit to London, 'Lord Lansdowne knows that our distinguished guest is a wary old bird and not to be caught with chaff. The frothy talk of community of sentiment and of the England of the East, and vague expressions of goodwill, have no temptations for him, and he differs so far from Li Hung-chang as to be entirely incorruptible for himself, while Japan, as he represents it, may be bribed, and it is well worth its price.' I argued that we might have had a cordial understanding on cheaper terms if we had been firmer in support of Japan's just claim to the spoils of war eight years ago, and that we were now called upon fairly enough to pay more dearly for a more valuable ally. We need Japan, and she needs us. The immediate Russian contention on the announcement of the treaty was that, like the self-denying Convention of last year, it did not refer to Manchuria, which was not to be regarded as part of the Empire of China. Of course, this is utterly untrue, geographically and politically, and China will now find courage to resist and deny the suggestion. A little thing, the Elliot approving intermarriage between Chinese and Manchurians, makes perceptibly for solidarity, and I expect a more definite statement, in the direction of restrictions to be placed on the Russian intruders, before the appearance of these lines.

I wonder whether I dare run away from London altogether during Convocation week. I am afraid not, but I know and envy several courageous individuals who intend doing so. London will be a grand place to be out of in the week ending June 28, and a horribly expensive and inconvenient place to be in. Such little necessities as the daily visits of the milkman, the newsagent's boy, the butcher and baker and the rest of them, will be dislocated, and if we put the number of visitors as low as a million, we may anticipate fearful overcrowding of the streets. All these million will want to see the procession on June 27, and as the route is only about 24,000 yards long, the visitors may be expected to stand eighteen deep along the whole extent of it. Then there are about a million and a half of Londoners to provide for as well. The average price of a seat at present is £2 10s, and they are booked freely. Even after paying the price, I fear many of us will be unable to reach the seats secured, through the thronged streets. This happened to many at the funeral of the late Queen, and the spectacular attractions will be greater than then. I shall be there, and most heartily wishing myself away.

I saw 'Ulysses' last night at Her Majesty's Theatre, and was convinced that London appreciates true poetry, high art and sound scholarship when these things are offered, in spite of the vogue gained by spurious 'Signs of the Cross' and 'Sweet Nell of Old Drury'. There is no lack of proof that Mr. Terh's furnished his scenery in accordance with specimens in the Mycenaean rooms of the British Museum, and though Mr. Phillips's play rings like Ovid than Homer, it is classic and poetic. The scenes in Hades, where we witness the punishments of Tantalus, Sisyphus and Prometheus are a marvellous piece of stagecraft, reminding us of the vision in 'L'Aiglon' and even more of Irving's 'Walpurgis Night' in 'Faust'.

Staunch Board Inspector: "Who is it that sits idly by doing nothing while everybody else is working?" Bobby: "The teacher."

APPOINTMENT OF ATTORNEY GENERAL FOR HONGKONG.

Sir Henry Spencer Berkeley, Chief Justice of Fiji and Judicial Commissioner for the Western Pacific, has been appointed Attorney General of Hongkong, and will arrive here some time in June.

The new Attorney General for this Colony was called to the Bar, Inner Temple, in June, 1873. In August, 1877, he was appointed Acting Attorney General of the Leeward Islands, and, in June of the following year, solicitor general. In 1883, he filled the acting appointment of Colonial Secretary. He was transferred to Fiji two years later as Attorney General. After occupying several acting appointments, he was made Chief Justice of Fiji and Chief Judicial Commissioner for the Western Pacific in February, 1889. On several occasions he has administered the government of Fiji. He received the honour of knighthood in 1895. It was hoped that Hon. H. E. Pollock, K.C., who recently left the Colony to take up the appointment of Attorney General of Fiji, and who some time ago was reported to be on the eve of returning to Hongkong, would get the appointment as, besides his qualifications for the post through having on several occasions been Acting Attorney General, he had a keen interest in several local institutions and was a popular member of the community. No doubt, however, Sir H. S. Berkeley will, from his long experience, prove a capable successor to our learned Chief Justice in the office to which he has just been appointed.

THE FREIGHT MARKET.

In their Freight Circular, dated Saturday, 12th inst., Messrs Lamke and Rogge write:—
Freights, coastwise, are still continuing in much about the same unsatisfactory state as they have been in for now pretty well five months. The rates in all the principal directions remain on so low a level that shippers can barely manage to cover expenses, whilst speculative shippers, who, by the glowing reports from both Saigon and Bangkok as to the excellent crops to be expected this season, were induced to operate and now have boats 'on time' upon their hands, are being made to suffer heavy losses, and are all of them sighing for a much-needed improvement. The position is perhaps best explained by a comparison with last year's rates: At this time last year about 30 cents per picul was offered for fairly large boats even, Saigon to Hongkong and 42 cents for ordinary-size boats Saigon-Philippines, 34/25 cents was paid for large-size tonnage Bangkok to Hongkong, (40/35 cents for same voyage smaller boats), and Newchwang-Canton freights stood at 42 cents, Newchwang-Anoy at 40 cents per picul. Business during the fortnight under review has been done at—Saigon to this at between 11 and 12 cents, from Saigon to one port Philippines at between 20 and 25 cents per picul, according to size and dates. From Saigon to one port N. C. Java in one instance as low as 21 cents has been accepted; there is an order on the market for prompt at time of writing at 25 cents. Saigon to Fouchow there has been further business at 25 cents. From Bangkok, no outside boats are wanted, the quotation stands nominally at 27 1/2 to 31 cents for outsiders. Newchwang shows business done to Hongkong at 25 cents, to Anoy at 25 cents, and to Swatow (a non-fixer) at 25 cents. Coal freights from Japan are firmer, with business done from Moji for Hongkong at $1.50, and tonnage acquired after for Singapore at $2.75/$2.75. On monthly terms, between natives, 'Madeline Rickmers' has been rechartered for about 4 months, being balance of original term, at $1.00 per month below cost, and between natives also, there has been a sub-charter of a ship, for a voyage hence to Mauritius and back, terms reserved. Sail freights—No charters are reported, and we have nothing fresh to advise for to-day under this head.

LATE TELEGRAMS.

Trouble on the Burmese Frontier.

Calcutta, April 3.—A Rangoon paper states that an armed body of Chinese has crossed the border from Mowin. A wild Bhama carried off a British subject and decapitated him. The situation is described as serious.

The Decay of Religious Sentiment.

London, March 30.—The Pope has addressed a long encyclical to the Catholic Bishops, which he describes as almost his last. After condemning modern materialism, he affirms that all moral and political disorders are due to the decay of religious sentiment. Society will find its salvation only in a return to the Church, which is sure to finally triumph. He concludes by exhorting the clergy to refrain from politics and render obedience to the Holy See.

Suggested Independence of Tibet.

April 2.—The Times Peking correspondent states that M. Paul Lemaire has been raising the question of Tibet, suggesting that China should confer independence. The Chinese believe that this portends a Russian acquisition as a set-off to the check in Manchuria.

British Royalty at Copenhagen.

The Prince and Princess of Wales have gone to Copenhagen to join Her Majesty the Queen in celebration of Prince Christian's birthday.

Cecil Rhodes' Last Words.

March 23.—After lying in state in the vestibule of the Parliament Building, the remains of Mr. Cecil Rhodes will be taken, on Thursday, by a crematorium to Cape Town Cathedral. The coffin will be borne on the carriage of the 'Long Cecil', which was used in the siege of Kimberley. After the service, the cortege escorts the remains to the railway station, whence a special train conveys them to Rhodesia.

The Persian Telegraph Convention.

London, March 29.—The Marine Review says that the real advantage which Great Britain has gained in the Persian Telegraph Convention is another proof that the war in South Africa has not fettered Great Britain's international activity. The war, it adds, has not prevented the achievement of substantial triumphs. British prestige in Persia has decidedly increased in the past six months.

Wireless Telegraphy.

Calcutta, April 2.—For some days the authorities of the Calcutta Central Telegraph Office have been attempting to send wireless messages, according to Marconi's system, from the flagstaff at the corner of the building to the telegraph station at Alipore, about four miles off. Up to the present the results are absolutely nil. The experiments are being continued.

N. W. Frontier.

Simla, April 1.—The Takht-i-Sulaiman Range has been thoroughly searched but it appears that Ahmed Khan, the murderer of the Extra Assistant Commissioner, has escaped over the Zaski Pass. The detachments which have been after him will now consequently be withdrawn. Amongst the prisoners taken by us are thirteen who belonged to his gang; most of his outfit has been captured, and the remainder, now satisfactorily proved that the tribesmen who were killed on the 23rd instant were present with Ahmed Khan on the occasion of the murders committed at Parvata and Dhanasar, if not when the Extra Assistant Commissioner was killed.

The Transvaal Railway Accidents.

London, April 1.—The casualty list shows that 39 soldiers were killed and 45 injured in a railway accident near Barberton. The men were composed of a half-section of the Hants (Regiment), and the rest belonged to the Volunteer Companies of that and other regiments.

Great Britain's Financial Position.

London, April 3.—Mr. Balfour, the Australian Premier, stated in the Federal House of Representatives, that he did not regard the 13th July as a date for the members of the Australian Corps, but as subject to the discipline of the regular Army. He had no reason to suppose that the court-martial was wanting in fairness.

Casualties in South Africa.

Calcutta, March 31.—The following further casualties are reported from South Africa:—
March 3rd.—At Spokenon—wounded dangerously: Captain W. Bedy, of Bedford's.

Obituary.

March 31.—The death is announced of the Hungarian statesman Von Borosjeny Károly, died last Saturday.

Trouble in the Balkans.

April 2.—The Athens correspondent to the Times gives an alarming account of affairs in the Balkans. He says there are many indications of coming trouble, particularly in Macedonia and Albania.

The Troubles of the Sultan.

London, April 2.—Unrest and lawlessness in Macedonia and Albania continue to excite uneasiness. The Porte has circulated the Powers, attributing the activity in Macedonia to revolutionaries and to the notorious Macedonian Committees introducing arms, ammunition and dynamite.

The Shah of Persia.

The Shah of Persia visits Venice, Rome and Berlin, and stays six weeks at Capri. The Shah arrives in London on the 13th July and leaves on the 20th July. On returning, he spends twenty days in Russia.

Attempted Murder.

April 1.—A governor yesterday attempted to shoot the Chief of the Moscow Police, with a revolver during a reception he was holding, but missed fire. She was at once arrested.

April 3.—The governor, who attempted the life of the Police Commissioner in Moscow, participated in the student disturbances in February, for which she was imprisoned and only released last week because she was ailing.

Setting Down.

The Johannesburg Town Council have vigorously taken in hand the needed reforms, such as water, housing, sanitation and rating, but are considerably hampered by military exigencies, which restrict the supply of materials, labour and animals.

No Successor to Sir George Birdwood.

The Times, in a special article on the decision of the India Office not to appoint a successor to Sir George Birdwood, the chief of the special branch of the Revenue and Statistics Department, states that the decision is the only satisfactory, prompt and accessible link between the India Office and capitalist traders, on whom it so largely depends. The article concludes by stating that the significance of the decision is most inadequately realised at the India Office.

The Perin Lighthouse.

Calcutta, April 1.—The Home Government having refused to contribute anything towards the improvement of the Perin Lighthouse the Bengal Chamber of Commerce have addressed the Government of India pointing out the urgency of the work and suggesting they should bear the cost in the interests of Indian navigation. The Government of India have now replied stating that, as the lighthouse would be equal in value to Hono and Colonial shipping, they decline on principle to bear the cost, though they are willing to contribute a fair share.

April 2.—The Bengal Chamber of Commerce has again addressed the Bengal Government regarding the necessity of lighting Perin Island, and suggesting that the Secretary of State for India should be addressed on the subject, with the view to bringing about a modus vivendi between the Home and India Governments. The Committee is strongly of opinion that the maintenance of the lighthouse is a purely technical point.
